

WORKING LOCALLY

DESCRIPTION

	CURRENT STATE	FUTURE STATE
Description	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Restrictive central procurement policies make it difficult for schools to purchase from local businesses</li> <li>Schools have limited opportunities to share management structures and administrative work which leads to duplication of effort and unnecessary workload</li> <li>Schools have limited opportunities to share resources and facilities on a voluntary basis</li> <li>Local governance and engagement through P&amp;Cs and school councils</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Principals will be free to make more local decisions for purchases up to $5,000</li> <li>Schools will have more opportunities to use local contractors</li> <li>Schools have opportunities to jointly create administrative, management, and leadership structures across schools</li> <li>New processes and templates make it easier for schools to share staff and resources</li> <li>Schools choose from a menu of community consultation strategies to suit their contexts</li> </ul>

NEXT STEPS

	NOW	SOON
Description	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Increase local decisions for purchases up to $5,000 from Day 1, Term 2, 2012</li> <li>Increase opportunities for schools to use local contractors</li> <li>Simplify processes for schools that choose to share staff and resources</li> <li>Professional learning and transition support</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>New tools to simplify and support increased local decision making</li> </ul>

TIMELINE

